We look forward to seeing everyone at the parents meeting on Thursday 16th February at either 2.30pm OR 5.30pm.

This will be your opportunity to find out more about Dolce and the live kitchen system, as well as being able to ask questions to the Dolce area manager, who will be leading the sessions.

National Book Week

National book week commences on Monday 27th February 2017. (straight after half term!)

We wanted to remind you about the events that are taking place during book week.

Parents will have the opportunity to support two sessions in their child's class during the week. Each class teacher will be displaying their timetabled sessions this week, for up to six parents/carers to attend. (These are teaching and learning sessions and are therefore, only open to adults.)

On Wednesday 1st March, is the 'reading to something unusual' competition. Please ensure all photo entries are clearly labelled with your child's name and class. Their will be prizes for the winning photos.

On Thursday 2nd March, we are asking all pupils to come to school dressed as a character from any traditional tale or fairy story. (It doesn't have to be a character from the story they are working on in class!)

Also on Thursday the Eco Warriors have organised a book swap event. They are asking all pupils to bring in an age appropriate book to swap with someone else in their year group.

On Friday 3rd March the travelling book fair arrives at school. All classes will have an allotted slot to shop with their class teacher and then the book fair will be open to parents and pupils for a week after school.
