Comic Relief

Friday 24th is Comic Relief - 'Red Nose Day'.

This year the school council have decided that everyone should come to school wearing red clothes. The suggested donation is £1 per child and all money raised will be sent directly to Comic Relief. Comic Relief is a registered charity that helps children who have tough lives across the UK and Africa.

Mrs Smith and the School Council will send out further information about the 'wet sponge' event.

Easter Discos

The tickets for the Easter disco go on sale today.

If your child would like to attend the PTA organised disco, please purchase a ticket from the school office. The tickets cost £1 each.

Nuts

We urge parents to consider the health and well being of other pupils in school when you pack your child's lunch. We have a number of pupils in school with severer nut allergies and therefore, we must insist that no nut based products or boxes of nuts are brought to school.

Nutella chocolate sandwich spread is made with hazelnuts!

If your child likes chocolate spread sandwiches, please ensure you send them with Cadbury's milk chocolate spread or another chocolate spread that is made WITHOUT nuts.

Thank you for your consideration and support in this matter.

The Big Pedal

Don't forget that 'The Big Pedal' started today!

Between 20th - 31st March we would like as many pupils and parents to travel to school on two wheels as possible.
