

Wickersley Northfield Primary NEWSLETTER

30th April 2018

Volume 29 (17/18)

School Closed

Please remember that our school will be closed next Monday due to it being May Day Bank holiday Monday!

PTA

A huge thank you to all the parents in the PTA who organised the coin trail on St George's Day.

During the pupil's lunchtime the PTA had pictures (St George & a dragon) for the pupils to fill with the coins they had brought from home.

The pupils enjoyed taking part in this event and £519.41 was raised.

The PTA and the school appreciate all the contributions that were sent in by our parents. All the money raised will be spent on equipment and resources for the pupils at WNP to use.

School Council

The School Council, Mrs Smith and local police officers conducted a 30 minute traffic survey on Thursday morning last week.

During the survey they caught 7 cars travelling above the speed limit! Please remember that it's a 20mph limit.

The pupils in the school council are working hard to highlight the ongoing issues with cars speeding and parking dangerously around the school grounds.

We all need to work together to make the local roads safe for our pupils!

Think - SAFETY first!

On Monday 23rd April, the following pupils went to Herringthorpe Stadium to take part in an orienteering event.

Riley Ellis, Sam Bell & Jude Moss came first!

Well done everyone!

On Monday 16th April, our under 7 football team went to play at Badsley Primary.
